PALACE BOMBARDED.

English Warships Fire on the Royal Harem.

BACK OF SLAVE TRADE BROKEN.

Said Khalid Seeks Protection in the German Consulate and a New Sultan Is Placed in Charge—Day of Great Excitement—All Foreigners Safe—A Blessing to Civilization.

ZANZIBAR, Aug. 28.—The old palace of Harem is nothing but a heap of smoldering ruins.

Hamoud Bin Mohammed Bin Said, after having been proclaimed sultan, was saluted by the British squadron and was escorted to his own house by Admiral Rawson, Premier Matthews, Mr. Basil Cave, the British consul, and a guard of soldiers who stood about the building. He is a cousin of the late sultan, is over 50 years old and a peaceful Anglophile. During the bombardment yesterday the gunboat Thrush was hit 63 times and the cruiser Racoon was hit 16 times by the guns on shore.

After the first broadside from the warships many of the Khalidites fled to the outskirts of the town where there was much looting and several Indians were killed. Up to the last moment no one but Said Khalid would resist. The ladies taken aboard the flagship St. George, behaved splendidly. They were put ashore in the afternoon. The majority of the Europeans remained on shore in spite of the warning issued by Admiral Rawson urging them to go aboard the British boats. Bishop Tucker and many of the natives, however, boarded the steamer Nowhera. The gunboats and the merchant vessels steamed away from the scene of action. The crew of the sultan's ship Glasgow hoisted the union jack as the ship sank. Members of the crew of the Glasgow, as they made their escape, rescued several of the wounded.

Admiral Rawson directed the attack from the flagship St. George. The majority of those killed on the sultan's side were Askims and only a few Arabs. The gunboat Thrush really did the greatest execution with her guns during the firing. The forces of Lieutenant Raikes killed and captured several looters and murderers. None of his men were wounded. Throughout the engagement the blue jackets were busily engaged in capturing pillagers and persons engaged in the slave trade.

It will probably be a long time before order is restored and business resumes its normal condition.

No sympathy for Said Khalid and his followers is expressed. It is hoped by the English here that the German consul will surrender the usurper.

It will be a great surprise if the government of Great Britain does not take advantage of the opportunity to abolish Arab rule, suppress slavery and proclaim Zanzibar a British colony.

FIFTY MINUTES

The Broadside From the Dogs of War Belched Forth.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—The foreign office has received dispatches from Zanzibar stating that the usurping sultan, Said Khalid, having refused to surrender in accordance with the terms of the British consul's ultimatum, the palace was bombarded by the warships in the harbor and after the bombardment was captured by the British sailors and marines, who had been landed by the war vessels. Said Khalid was made a prisoner and will be deported to India. The dispatches do not mention the loss on either side.

A later dispatch says that Said Khalid and his leading adherents made their escape and took refuge in the German consulate.

Still later dispatches say that at noon the palace and the old customhouse were a blazing mass of ruins. Sharp firing continued on the outskirts of the city, where a force of British marines, with 400 loyal Zanzibaris hold the main road. Other sailors and marines are bringing in the prisoners and collecting the dead for burial.

During the bombardment of the palace the steamer Glasgow, which was owned by the late sultan and carried a number of guns, was fired upon by the British warships and immediately sank.

New Sultan Proclaimed.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The department of state received the following cablegram yesterday morning from Dorsey Mohon, United States consul at Zanzibar: Khalid bin Bargash, refusing to surrender, the palace was bombarded by the English fleet at 9 o'clock yesterday and totally destroyed. Many killed. He took refuge at the German consulate. Afterward Hamoud was proclaimed sultan. All Americans safe.

Returned the Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—Further dispatches from Zanzibar say that the bombardment of the palace lasted 50 minutes. The firing was done by the warships Racoon, Thrush and Sparrow. The followers of Said Khalid were stationed behind barricades and kept up a steady fire upon the British soldiers and marines until their positions were carried by the British.

HAPPY

Is the Christian World to Know That the Slave Trade Is Broken.

The day's news from Zanzibar will prove of great importance if the action of the British means the abolition of the wretched slave trade that has so long been a blot on Africa. It is interesting to note that Said Khalid was aided in his efforts to hold the palace against the British by a great force of slave traders, who, of course, appreciate the fact that if Great Britain assumes immediate control of Zanzibar there will be an end of their business. Although the island of Zanzibar is of comparatively small extent, it is the center of commercial activity in east Africa. The United States was the first government to make a treaty of commerce with the sultan. This was in 1835, and since then the importance of the island has grown steadily with African development.

The sultan formerly was not only the chief of Zanzibar proper, and of several minor islands lying near, but his authority extended to the mainland. By various treaties he was gradually shorn of his authority on the mainland until 1890, when Great Britain was given a protectorate over the whole. Since 1891 a regular government has been maintained by the British in Zanzibar, with Sir L. Matthews prime minister. The sultan has had very little to say about the administration of affairs, a staff of British officials conducting the whole business of his little sultanate. The town of Zanzibar has a population of about 30,000. The harbor from which the British men-of-war bombarded the town is excellent. The fort is a poor affair, which, according to recent observers, would not last long under a fire from modern guns.

The importation of slaves has been prohibited in Zanzibar for 20 years, but as is well known, the trade has gone on steadily in spite of efforts to break it up. British cruisers have patrolled the coast, but the slave traders have been able to elude them. It will be good news to the Christian world if this trade is now to be broken up. Slavery has never been more grossly conducted than in this region, and Christian people, constantly informed of its horrors by missionaries have long been impatient at the inability of the English to stop it.

WITH MILITIA

The Louisville Army Is Guarded—Feeling Grows Bitter.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 28.—The day of suspense turned to a night of fear here. After a lengthy consultation with the adjutant general and assistant adjutant general, Governor Bradley came to Louisville, and two hours later Companies A and B of infantry of the First regiment and a detachment of Battery A were assembled at the Seventh street armory. At first all information regarding the calling out of the troops was refused, but later the newspaper men were informed that the guard was placed at the armory to protect it from a threatened attack on those who hope to secure the arms and ammunition.

The First Bloodshed.

The first blood was spilled opposite the city hall yesterday afternoon, when ex-Detective William De Forrester, a witness against the board of safety, in a quarrel with ex-Detective Thomas Connel stabbed him with a knife. He was not seriously hurt. Sergeant Hoffmann was slashed several times in an attempt to arrest De Forrester.

The Republicans are incensed at the turn affairs have taken, and they are completely out of it. Of the three members of the new board of public safety, two are Democrats. It is rumored that Mayor Todd has cut loose from the Republicans. He still has the support of the advisory board, which yesterday afternoon endorsed his stand.

Colored Republicans.

The colored Republicans, however, are after the band wagon. There will be a mass meeting of colored people at Thirteenth and Walnut streets to take steps toward securing representation in the police, fire and other departments of the city. Another meeting of the same kind will be held Friday evening at East and Green streets.

A Partisan Fight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 28.—The fight between Mayor Todd and the board of safety is entirely partisan. When Todd was elected by the general council to fill out the unexpired term of Mayor Tyler, who died, he demanded the resignations of the board of safety, which resulted in the legal litigations that have followed. The board first got an injunction against the mayor and board of aldermen, preventing them from molesting the board. Then two members of the council instigated impeachment proceedings.

GUEST DROWNED.

Miss Annie Watson's Distressing Death at Brownstown.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 28.—Wednesday night about 10 o'clock, when the Ella Layman towboat excursion was near Brownstown locks, above this city 10 miles, and while a number of ladies and gentlemen were in the bow of the barge, water dashed over the front end of it, and it was feared by some that the barge would sink. The crowd made a rush back to the boat and in jumping from the barge to the boat Miss Annie Belle Watson of St. Paul, who was the guest of the family of Mr. Van Donnelly, fell into the river and was drowned. She was about 18 years old. She was not missed until the boat had been turned and was coming down stream. Someone asked for her, and it was then a search was made, but she could not be found. There will be an effort made to recover the body. The excursion was gotten up by Captain R. S. Carr for the benefit of the M. E. church South, and several times he warned the excursionists to keep from crowding to the front of the barge.

LEADERS SURRENDER

Apparent End of the Riots in Constantinople.

DETAILS OF THE WILD OUTRAGE.

Four Turkish Ladies Blown to Atoms by the Discharge of a Dynamite Bomb. Heads of the Gendarmes Cut Off and Thrown in the Street—Many Killed but the Number Unknown.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—The riots which Wednesday caused so much excitement throughout Constantinople are apparently at an end. The leaders of the mob which attacked the officers of the Ottoman bank surrendered and will be expelled from Turkey. The official account of the troubles attributes the riots to an organized effort on the part of the central committee of the Armenian revolutionists to stir up a revolution. The invaders, as if by a preconcerted arrangement, suddenly entered the great hall of the Ottoman bank armed with revolvers, daggers and dynamite bombs. Furling in small groups they were accosted by the officer of the guard, who demanded from them a statement of their business with the bank. Without stopping to reply they blew out his brains and then killed and beheaded the gendarmes, throwing the heads of the dead men out into the streets.

During the resultant confusion they closed the doors of the bank and hurled a number of bombs into the street. Four Turkish ladies who were driving along in a carriage were blown to pieces by the explosion of one of the dynamite bombs. Two of the French employees of the bank while descending from a window by means of a rope, were wounded by one of the explosives. They narrowly escaped with their lives by reason of the timely intervention of the imperial troops. The rioters also captured a hotel in the city of Constantinople and bombs and shot and missiles fairly rained upon the heads of the passersby wounding many persons.

Many similar events are reported from various portions of the city. It is known that a great many persons have been killed, but it is impossible to ascertain the exact number, owing to the prevalent excitement, and the desire on the part of the Armenians as well as the Turkish authorities to keep the identity of the killed and wounded secret. The Armenian patriarch has excommunicated all Armenians concerned in this latest uprising.

WORST IN YEARS.

Three Hundred Thousand Dollar Conflagration at Sault Ste. Marie.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Aug. 28.—This city yesterday experienced the worst fire since Aug. 9, 1886, when the whole business portion of the town was nearly burned out. The fire started in North Water street, and before it could be gotten under subjection over $300,000 worth of property was destroyed. Among the burned buildings are the Soo National bank block, which cost $100,000, the Prenzlaur block, Chippeau House, Cleveland House, Metzger block, Perry hotel, postoffice and United States customs office, telephone exchange and a number of wood structures. The loss is about half covered by insurance.

FOUND $4,000 IN A TEA KETTLE.

Patrick Henry Uncovers Treasure That Had Been Long Buried.

MEXICO, Mo., Aug. 28.—A valuable find of money is reported 12 miles northeast of Moberly. The finder is Patrick Henry, who was moving from Springfield, Ill., to Kansas. While in camp and cutting a stick of wood his ax slipped and struck something in the ground, which proved to be an old tea kettle, containing $4,000 in gold. The dates on the coin are prior to 1860.

No Cholera in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—After a thorough investigation of the reported case of malignant Asiatic cholera in this city, Health Officer Reilly has decided that James McFarland's death was not caused by that dread disease. It has been learned that McFarland had been ailing for a month. The visiting health inspector claims there is no possible reason for the belief that Asiatic cholera gained a victim in Chicago.

Estimate of World's Crops.

BUDA-PESTH, Aug. 28.—The minister of agriculture, M. Ignatius De Darnay, estimates the world's crops for 1896 as follows: Wheat, 825,000,000 hectolitres; rye, 424,000,000 hectolitres. The revised totals for 1895, as furnished by the agricultural department of Austria-Hungary, show that 875,000,000 hectolitres of wheat and 480,000,000 hectolitres of rye were produced during that year.

Tinplate Trust.

ANDERSON, Ind., Aug. 28.—General Manager Donner of the National Tinplate company said that he doubts the truth of a report that the tinplate trust has gone to pieces, but said it is a fact that several manufacturers have withdrawn or pay but little attention to their membership, because the eastern manufacturers can not dictate to the western.

GREENSBURG, Ind., Aug. 28.—Chris Rohlfing, a farmer, assigned yesterday. The assets are $10,000 and liabilities $20,000.

EXPLOSIVES SAVED THE FRAM.

Captain Sverdrup Talks Briefly, but Tells of Interesting Experiences.

LONDON, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to The Chronicle from Tromsø, signed by Dr. Nansen, gives Captain Sverdrup's account of the voyage of the Fram after Dr. Nansen left that boat. The dispatch says: "The lee pressure was never as severe as upon several occasions before Dr. Nansen left us during June, 1896. We were regularly exposed, however, to violent pressures, caused by the changing spring tide. The Fram was once or twice lifted from six to nine feet. Her bottom became visible as it rested on the ice. So little effect did this have on the Fram's timbers that the men continued their slumbering undisturbed. An easier Arctic exploring expedition one could hardly imagine.

"The principal work was to take regular observations, sleep and eat. The health of the men was perfect during the entire expedition. There was not a sign of scurvy apparent among any of the men. When all efforts to advance the boat through the ice by the force of steam or a process of warping failed, it was found that gun cotton mines proved the best means of shattering the ice. As a rule very high ice floes prevailed, so extensive that their termination could not be described even by the telescopes. Often it looked like a hopeless task breaking our way out of the ice foot by foot, but with the liberal use of explosives and owing to the peculiar construction of our boat we finally succeeded."

FOUR YOUNG PEOPLE ELOPE.

They Are Refused Licenses Until the Arrival of Guardians.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 28.—Monday morning two young men, accompanied by two girls still in short dresses, registered at the City hotel of Logansport as B. Q. Casto, Daisy Johnson, Samuel Firth and Jessie Hoover, all of Reynolds. The visitors were manifestly ill at ease, and anxious to avoid notice. Attaches of the hotel were suspicious that the young people were elopers, and their suspicions were verified when Casto visited the clerk's office and attempted to secure marriage licenses. He was, of course, refused, and had barely rejoined his companions when the mothers of the girls appeared at the hotel. There were tears and pleadings, which terminated in all repairing to the clerk's office, where the coveted licenses were procured.

The Rev. E. L. Seamans then married the young people, and the affair was kept quiet until yesterday, when Casto's father came to pay the runaway's board bill and take them home. He said that they went away Sunday night, taking his team and driving to Logansport. There was no opposition to the unions, but the young people feared that there would be on account of their youth. Casto is 18 years of age; his bride, Miss Johnson, 16; Firth is 21, and Miss Hoover, whom he married, is 16.

HOPS SCARCE.

The Price of the Product Will Advance in Consequence.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—The American Agriculturist in this week's issue says: For the first time in three years, some improvement in hop prospects is at length in sight. Special reports received from the Pacific coast show that in that section this season there will be only about half as many hops as last year. In New York state the crop will be fully one-third less than last season. In England the reduction is estimated conservatively at 20 to 33 per cent of the 1895 crop. Should these present conditions be verified by the actual harvest it means that the 1896 crop in these three sections will be between 125,000 and 250,000 bales less than last year's growth. Prospects at this writing certainly warrant the belief that the heavy reduction in the '96 product will go far toward compensating for the large surplus of old hops in the hands of dealers and buyers and the market is shaping itself into a more hopeful condition.

Queer Suicide of a Hermit.

CONVERSE, Ind., Aug. 28.—E. A. Shaw, who was also known as "Friday" Shaw, because of some peculiar characteristics which suggested Robinson Crusoe's servant, living the life of a hermit near here, stood barrels upon one another until he had a tank seven feet in height, the top covered with a lid held down with a spring lock. After writing a note saying that the spirits had ordained his death, he filled his tank with water, lowered himself and snapped down the lid. Death was by drowning. Two sons of the deceased live at Connersville.

Reformatory Transfers.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 28.—Warden Coffin has made out a list of prisoners who are to be transferred from the penitentiary to the reformatory at Mansfield. Among them are the following Hamilton county men: Homer Lyons, Cadge Jackson, Edward Scott, Frank Jones, Benjamin Wilson, Martin Sweeney, Alfred Wesley, James Gooden, George Cranshaw, William Hill, James Taylor, Joseph Miller.

CONFESSED IN CHURCH

A Vast Counterfeiting System Turned Up in Texas.

MEXICAN SILVER COINS USED.

Principal Criminal Gets Religion and Tells All—Several Arrests Follow and the Plan Is Disclosed—Royal Manufacturing Company the High Sounding Name of the Fraudulent Business.

WACO, Tex., Aug. 28.—The federal authorities here have discovered a counterfeiting system of large proportions and have captured a complete outfit for the manufacture of bogus silver dollars in imitation of the United States coins of that denomination. The first clew was furnished by Edward D. Ennis, who attended a revival meeting, and after professing conversion rose in the congregation and stated that he was a counterfeiter. The arrest of Ennis was followed by the arrest of John Mitchell and H. S. Shanner.

When the prisoners were arraigned Ennis repeated his confession and gave details which led to the finding of the camp near Hill county, at which place the metal, moulds, rollers and crucibles were scattered around like common pots and pans. Ennis told Commissioner Fink that seven factories for the manufacture of spurious coin existed in the United States. The syndicate was called the Royal Manufacturing company. It is stated by Ennis that agencies of the counterfeiting corporation exist in Canada and Mexico.

He also says operations are going on in New York and Chicago. A consignment of 2,000 Mexican dollars was received in Waco a few months ago, it is said, and was used in the manufacture of the spurious coins. Another consignment of 10,000 Mexican dollars arrived here a few months ago but was forwarded by Ennis to some other point.

ADMIRAL MEADE

May Be Selected by the Grand Army For Commander-in-Chief.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Admiral Richard W. Meade, late United States navy, arrived today from Europe and left at once by special train for St. Paul to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. The admiral will be welcomed at the encampment by the National Association of Naval Veterans, who are enthusiastically urging his election as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, to succeed Major Walker of Indiana.

Admiral Meade, as commander of Lafayette post of New York city, represents one of the strongest departments east of the Alleghenies. He is a hero of the quarterdeck with 45 years of continuous service under the flag of the republic to his credit. From 1861 to 1865 he served in the squadrons of the North and South Atlantic, the upper Mississippi and the west gulf. Immediately upon his retirement from the navy last year he joined the ranks of the Grand Army, uniting with Lafayette post. The naval element of the Grand Army has never yet been honored by the selection of a commander-in-chief from its ranks.

Chicago Bank Failure.

CHICAGO, Aug. 28.—The Avenue Savings bank, at 260 Twenty-first street, made an assignment in the county court yesterday to the Title Guarantee and Trust company. According to the statement filed in court, the assets amount to $170,000 and the liabilities about the same. George L. McGill is the owner of the bank. The failure is supposed to have been caused by the failure of the Globe National bank to continue to clear for the Twenty-first concern. Some of the small depositors became alarmed and started a run on the bank.

Threatened Millionaire Straton.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 28.—W. A. Faulk, who says he is from Valley Falls, Kan., has been arrested on a charge of having written letters to W. S. Stratton, the millionaire mine owner, threatening him with death and the destruction of his property unless he should deposit $1,200 in a certain cave at Divide, near Cripple Creek. Stratton turned the letter over to the authorities, who immediately arrested Faulk in his cabin near the cave.

Not a "Quiet Wedding."

PITTSBURG, Aug. 28.—During the festivities following a negro wedding yesterday morning, Robert Scott, a former lover, insulted the bride, and the bridegroom, George Hall, at once shot him dead. A general fight was then precipitated. In which the bride was dangerously stabbed twice, and the bridegroom badly hurt. The latter was arrested and is now in jail.

Work of the Labor Union.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 28.—Since the organization of the Terre Haute central labor union, in March, 1895, over 20 grievances, all of which threatened to result in boycotts or strikes, have been amicably adjusted, with satisfaction to all concerned. Six of these disturbances have been settled within the past month.

RICHMOND, Tex., Aug. 28.—As Kane Neal was walking up Main street yesterday, Armistead and Harry Mitchell stepped out from J. M. Steele's store, armed with shotguns, and shot him down. Neal crawled into the store and fired through the window, but without effect. Neal died soon after.

The local correspondent of the Cincinnati Post sends his paper the following:
 MAYSVILLE, Ky., August 27.—A McKinley, Hobart and Pugh Club was organized here last night with 150 members. Several Democrats signed the roll.
 The correspondent must have multiplied the membership by three. The President of the club and the Ledger places the number enrolled at about sixty, "at least two of whom," the Ledger says, "have heretofore voted the Democratic ticket." The Post man says "several" of the members are Democrats.

RUSSIA'S SILVER MONETARY SYSTEM.

The cry of the goldites is that free coinage of silver would drive all the yellow metal out of the country and bring us to a silver basis. If that is true, why then doesn't Russia's silver monetary system drive all the gold out of that country? Russia's monetary system is silver, as stated, and her legal ratio between the two metals is 15 1/2 to 1. Yet statistics recently furnished by Secretary Carlisle show that Russia's stock of gold amounts to $480,000,000, her stock of silver only $48,000,000 while her paper currency amounts to $529,000,000.

PRESIDENT ANDREWS ON FREE COINAGE.

President Andrews of Brown University, who has a national reputation as an economist and writer, was recently asked what he thought would be the result of free coinage. Here is his answer:
 After a possible first shock our credit would improve after free coinage. It is our present course which must speedily lower our credit. How long could a man or a firm continue to have credit who borrowed each year to pay a large portion of his running expenses? Yet on a gold basis this course is inevitable, and that is at this moment the reason why foreign lenders are shy of our securities. There must be a change if we would avoid bankruptcy. With free coinage every industry would look up, and even if we lost our gold our prosperity would invite in English capital, just as Japan's prosperity now causes it to rush there. Never since slavery days has the press in the parts of the country familiar to me displayed such disregard for truth and such stubborn obtuseness to the most obvious consideration as it does at present on the silver question. This means that the money power seated in London, but with representatives in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago, is determined to continue the appreciation of gold and is determined therefore that the facts shall not be known. The bankers and the press are almost entirely under its influence. I think the money question at the present time the greatest question of civilization.

A COMMON MISTAKE CORRECTED. One of the stock arguments of the gold standard advocates is expressed in the following extract from the New York Mail and Express:

"Candidate Bryan's idea that the free coinage of silver would raise the bullion value of silver to $1.29 an ounce in gold is almost too absurd for serious consideration. It is flatly contradicted by the fact that during the period of the greatest silver coinage ever issued by this government the value of silver bullion has steadily declined. The enormous increase in silver production has sent bullion prices downward in spite of absorption of an extraordinary amount of the white metal into our currency.
 "The plain answer to this," says the Enquirer, "is that the free coinage of silver would turn all bullion that is presented at the mints into legal tender silver dollars. Silver enough with which to coin a dollar would, therefore, be worth a dollar before it was coined, just as certainly as the dollar coined from it would be worth any other dollar. How then could silver bullion fall in price under a free coinage law? Would a man take less than a dollar for the amount of silver necessary to coin a dollar, when he can exchange it for a dollar at the mint? During the eighty-one years that gold and silver coinage was free at the mint, the price of silver did not fall. But when the mints of the United States and Europe were closed to the free coinage of silver, the silver bullion became mere merchandise, just as gold would be if it should be demonetized. Then the price of silver bullion was reduced, like all other commodities, by the reduced demand for it. It continued in general use throughout the world in the arts and for small coins, which were a legal tender for a few dollars only. But its great function as a money of legal tender was gone. In 1878 the House of Representatives, in obedience to the people's will, passed a free coinage bill. In obedience to the will of the Wall street gold dealers the Senate knocked this measure on the head, and substituted one to suit them. This the House had to agree to or take nothing. It provided for the purchase of 2,000,000 a month and continued in existence for thirteen years. In 1890 the Sherman purchase act was passed, largely increasing the amount of silver to be purchased. If the amount purchased had been equivalent to free coinage and the price would have gone up to $1.29 an ounce. But the struggle between the different bullion owners to sell to the government the limited amount demanded sent the price down to the lowest point at which contesting bidders were willing to sell. Does not that clearly explain why silver bullion went down while it was being coined in large quantities? If there were only 100 ounces of silver in the world, and if only fifty of them could be coined under the law, and if the Secretary of the Treasury was ordered to buy that quantity, 100 ounces of supply would so greatly exceed the fifty ounces of demand, that the price would be governed by the competition between the bidders. This would be just as true if the supply were 100,000,000 and the amount to be coined were 50,000,000. And this, in fact, is just what did occur under the Sherman purchase act. To sum it all up the purchase of silver bullion in a limited amount from the lowest bidder for coinage purposes creates a commercial value for a merely commercial commodity. The free coinage at a given ratio, of all silver bullion brought to the mints, gives to all bullion its full coinage value, and makes that also its commercial value."

MARK HANNA has had a muzzler on Major McKinley for some time but the latter will have to engage in the role of muzzler if Mr. Hanna isn't more careful. In an interview in New York the other day, Hanna said:

I am of the opinion that natural laws will take care of the parity between gold and silver. The increased production of gold will decrease its value and the disparity between it and silver in the next five or ten years will not be as great as it is now.

"Increased production of gold will decrease its value." Gold advocates have told us that gold does not fluctuate, that its value does not appreciate or depreciate, that it's "intrinsic" and all that. And Mark Hanna virtually telling them they don't know anything about it. What's the matter with Hanna?

Housekeeping.

If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman in the world. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health, in nine cases out of ten comes from derangements of the delicate, feminine organs of generation.

The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right, except in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures safely, permanently.

THE INSTITUTE.

What Was Done at Thursday's Session—Interesting Talks by the Teachers.

Thursday morning's session of the Teachers' Institute was called to order by Superintendent Blatterman. Singing, "A shelter in the time of storm," was led by Mr. Gabby vocalist, Miss Blatterman organist. Scripture reading and prayer by the Superintendent.

Reading, the first topic on the program, was thoroughly discussed; Mr. G. H. Turnipseed opening the discussion, Misses Allen, Goddard and Messrs. Degman, Swift and Asbury following. Mr. Asbury thinks the first and second grades should receive special attention, or in other words, the children should be started right.

After the morning recess at 10:30, the Superintendent made a report of the condition of the library, etc., also stating that the State per capita this year would be $2.19, a decrease of about 60 cents, caused by overestimating the school fund last year.

Conductor Shipp closed the discussion on reading, having by way of explanation an excellent program placed on the board, by which he very ably illustrated his method.

The morning session closed with the Critic's report which showed that even his honor (the Critic) sometimes makes a slip of the lip if not of the heart.

The afternoon session opened by singing, "Oh! Where are the reapers?" and "The Crowning Day."

The first topic considered was history. The discussion was opened by Mr. W. T. Berry, followed by Mr. Charles Turnipseed and Miss Bean. Miss Bean thinks that supplementary reading is not only useful but actually necessary in teaching this subject. Mr. M. A. Ruggles and Mr. Connelly also advanced excellent ideas on this subject.

Conductor Shipp now took charge of the subject, giving several definitions for history. The story of the evolution of man and the world's memory he considered as among the best short definitions that could be given. He also is a strong advocate of the teaching of current events and believes that our children must be taught to live in the present as well as the past.

Singing, "Onward, Christian soldiers," followed the afternoon intermission of ten minutes.

The subject of civil government was taken up and Mr. Hayes Thomas was first called upon. Mr. Thomas says teach the youth of our country how and why they are governed. Miss Rheinhardt and Miss Chambers gave practical and useful methods of teaching the subject, after which Conductor Shipp closed the discussion.

The Institute adjourned after hearing the Critic's report.

The enrollment since our last report shows the following:

Miss Ethel Nolin, Maysville.
C. D. Wells, Bernard.
Miss Alice Dorsey, Fern Leaf.
Miss Maria Thornton.
Mr. Dimmitt Hutchins, Maysville.
Mr. Hayes Thomas, Maysville.
Miss Hannah O'Hare, Maysville.
Miss Jacova Bacon.
Mr. E. F. D. Moss, Maysville.
Mr. E. Swift, Maysville.

A little girl in the Fourth (Dr. Hall's) Chicago church has made a valuable contribution to the new woman literature. She told her mamma the story of Adam and Eve. "Dod, he made Adam, an he put him in a big garden, an Adam he was so, so lonesome, an then he putted him to sleep, he did, an then he took out his brains an made a woman of the brains, an then Adam he wasn't lonesome no more."—Chicago Interior.

THE Kings Daughters of Frankfort recently opened a hospital, and employed a trained nurse who gave the name of Mrs. Thompson, and who presented extravagantly fine recommendations from Dr. Merritt Hitt, of the Los Angeles, Cal., county hospital. A few days ago she was sent out to nurse the sick wife of a resident. One night this week she left her helpless patient uncared for, and went out. With her went $40 from the house, and when she was next heard from she was in the workhouse on a charge of drunk and disorderly conduct. She was given three hours to leave town and didn't consume all the time allowed her. Now it is in order for "Dr. Merritt Hitt, of the Los Angeles, county hospital" to explain to the King's Daughters of Frankfort, Ky., what sort of people he sends out with his recommendations, says the Capital.

AND STILL ANOTHER DEFEAT.

The Maysvilles Were Shut Out at Mt. Sterling Yesterday—Base Ball News.

The Maysvilles suffered another defeat yesterday. The Mt. Sterlings not only defeated them but gave 'em a coat of whitewash, the score standing 10 to 0.

The Mt. Sterlings are not a slow team by any means, as was demonstrated on their visit here.

They left here is no good humor, thinking the umpire had given them the worst of it; and they no doubt had things arranged yesterday to retaliate.

The Maysville managers should do one of two things, either strengthen the team or quit for the season.

Nothing but a winning team will satisfy the Maysville fans. Three new men such as Bailey, Kehoe and Wetterer, would make the Maysvilles as strong as ever.

BIG FAKE

Was the Delegation of So-Called Knox County Farmers Who Called Upon McKinley.

Mr. VERNON, Ohio, August 25.—It was not known here until to-day, when the statement was read in the daily papers, that several hundred farmers of this (Knox) county had gone to Canton yesterday to call on Major McKinley. The fact of the matter is, that of the 500 people from this county who went to Canton yesterday not one fourth were farmers. Three fourths of the crowd came from this city. So far as being a farmer out-pouring, the affair was a fake, pure and simple, and Mr. McKinley addressing the crowd as farmers was extremely ridiculous. The "son of a Knox County farmer," who made the presentation speech, has not been on a farm for twenty years, and has practiced law here for many years.

It having been determined to have an address by Mr. McKinley to farmers, the duty was assigned to Hon. Burgess McElroy, of this city, who was State Oil Inspector under Governor McKinley, to get up the crowd of farmers to listen to the Major's carefully prepared address to them.

This is not a good county from which to run a farmers' excursion, as under the grinding operations of the single gold standard policy of the Government there are not many Knox County farmers who can afford to make an excursion to see McKinley.

It became evident to the managers of the excursion that it was not going to pan out as regards the number going, and to make a showing free railroad tickets were handed around town, and as is always the case under such circumstances, there was no trouble experienced in getting people take a free ride at the expense of the Wallstreet campaign fund.

LOW PRICES FOR TOBACCO.

Bracken County Farmers Coming Out in Debt on Their 1895 Crop—Startling Figures.

[Augusta Chronicle.]

Bracken County to-day would not sell for one-third of the price asked eighteen years ago. It is true the banks and bankers have plenty of money, but the laboring class—the poor farmers—can't borrow it. Those having the money will not let it out, knowing the inability of the farmer to repay it at the price at which farm products are now sold.

Since writing the above we have had a call from one of our country friends who gave us some prices realized by the farmers of his neighborhood for tobacco:

Thos. Ellis sold 2,700 pounds for $31.50, E. Thompson sold 8,000 pounds for $40, Leslie Hanson sold 2,610 pounds for $27.80, Everet Morford sold 3,000 pounds for $32.50, Webb Ellis sold $3,000 pounds for $72. Charles Galbraith sold his crop, the best in the neighborhood, for $2.50 per hundred. A crop of 30,000 pounds sold in this place for $3 per hundred, and will lose the purchaser $300, besides the cost of shipping. Thomas Suddels shipped a crop of about 4,000 pounds and owes the warehouse a balance of $3.40 charges. And yet because the farmers are not satisfied with these kind of times and sales they are called anarchists, demagogues and popocrats or any other name to bring discredit on them.

Captured a Train.

Fifteen tramps captured a C. and O. freight train at Foster Wednesday. When the train reached Dayton the police were summoned and the crew again got possession of the train. When Conductor Gibson first attempted to put the men from the train the tramps drew revolvers. J. Stevenson, of Peoria, Ill.; A. Thornton, of Indianapolis, and D. Robinson, of Knoxville, Tenn., were captured.

WANTON MURDER
Committed by the Mutilous Crew of a Brig.
NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A dispatch to The World from Boston says: The crew of the Portland brig Henry B. Cleves mutinied in the harbor of St. John, Porto Rico, attacked the captain, overpowered the mate and about killed him and inflicted injuries on the steward which caused his death. The steward, Antonio F. Berra, was struck over the head by a belaying pin and thrown head foremost into the vessel's hold. The Cleves sailed from Baltimore, June 5, coal laden, for Porto Rico. She was commanded by Captain Thomas C. Wallace, Mate Christopher Sumner and carried a crew of four colored men, shipped at Baltimore, and Stewart Berra. On June 21 St. Johns was reached. The crew had behaved badly and carried things their own way in port. On Sunday, July 12, they came aboard and one of them named Williams demanded his wages from the captain, which was refused. The other three went forward, quarreling with the steward and the mate told them to stop their noise. Williams hit the mate when his back was turned, knocking him to the deck on the edge of the hatchway. Mate Sumner says: "It was his evident intention to throw me down the hatch. Three men jumped on me and one rushed at the captain, seizing him by the throat. The steward ran to aid me and Williams struck him with a belaying pin. They then threw him down the hatch. I managed to struggle to my feet, threw a cask at one of the men, breaking his head and then fired a shot from my revolver to secure aid and the fight was over. Berra died a few days later. The crew were arrested and the Spanish authorities wanted to string them up, but the consul interfered and told us he would send them to the states."
The whereabouts of the crew is not known to the local United States authorities and no advices have been received from Washington beyond the statements forwarded by the consul.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes
With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.
If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
